less on personal property.

SENATOR CARPENTER: That answers my question then. I move the adoption of the committee amendments.

SPEAKER: Now, Senator Carpenter, you are talking, are you not, about the...is it your amendment to the committee amendment you're...

SENATOR CARPENTER: I want the other one withdrawn.

SPEAKER: You ask unanimous consent to withdraw your amendment to the committee amendment.

SENATOR CARPENTER: That's right. Yes.

SPEAKER: Then we are now back on the committee amendment. Is there any further discussion of the committee amendment? All those in favor of the committee amendment say aye. Those opposed no. The committee amendment is adopted. Now are there further amendments to the bill?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Mr. President, on line 8, strike "five" and put in "six months". As I understand it, if I am incorrect somebody advise me, after the court will determine what you own, instead of having five years to sue you, they have got to do it in six months. And after they got the judgment, it lays there for ten years and that is in continuity with what the federal government apparently does now.

SPEAKER: Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Senator Carpenter, wouldn't a year...I would think because of some of the ways they do process these things
